Foreign Patent Document

Explanation of Relevance

DE3712145

The relevancy of this document as presently understood is obtained from the English language abstract which indicates that this document discloses an optical component of adjustable focal length which has an elastomeric part, a rigid aperture part, a counterelement, and a device for applying force to the elastomeric part.

EP0003044

The relevancy of this document as presently understood is obtained from the English language abstract which indicates that this document discloses optically transmitting laminates consisting of two or more laminae which are bonded by one or more intermediate layers of organopolysiloxanes characterized in that the intermediate layer consists of an optically transmitting organopolysiloxane prepared by a platinum-catalysed addition reaction.

JP5069511 The relevancy of this document as presently understood is obtained from the English language abstract which indicates that this document discloses a silicone composite body consisting of a base layer made of silicone gel and a surface layer, which is formed on the surface of the base layer, made of silicone elastomer or silicone resin.

JP5069512 The relevancy of this document as presently understood is obtained from the English language abstract which indicates that this document discloses a silicone composite body consisting of a base layer made of silicone gel and a surface layer, which is formed on the surface of the base layer, made of silicone elastomer or silicone resin.

JP62239106 The relevancy of this document as presently understood is obtained from the English language abstract which indicates that this document discloses a variable focus optical element including a cylindrical aperture member consisting of a relatively hard material, a disk-shaped laminated elastic material, a circular base plate also consisting of a hard material and a cylindrical retaining ring. The disk-shaped laminated elastic material is particularly a silicone rubber or an ethylene-propylene rubber.

☐ A concise explanation of the relevance of the following listed non-English language information is set forth in the above-identified specification:
